SURGIVA Trentino, Italy	Still / Sparkling	6
--------------------------------	-------------------	---

Surgiva is the official water of the Italian National Sommelier Association: thanks to its extremely low fixed residue, Surgiva does not alter the taste of the wines that it accompanies during tasting sessions. Furthermore, it adds the perfect final touch to the table's taste triangle composed by food, wine, and water. Surgiva is part of the Lunelli Group, named after the family that in 1952 took over the reins of Ferrari Winery from the hands of its founder, Giulio Ferrari.

Since 1980s, the Lunelli family has integrated its Trentodoc wines with other brands that share its values: a tireless search for quality and a bond with the territory. Examples are Trentino's long-standing distillery, Segnana, the wines produced by the Tenute Lunelli in Trentino, Tuscany, and Umbria, and Bisol, a brand with a long-standing tradition in the production of Prosecco Superiore..
